

Briggs Will Take Sabbatical

Pell, Poste Resigning

Four major faculty changes have been announced by the executive committee of the Board of Trustees.

Prof. Wallace N. Briggs, director of the Guignol Theater, will spend the 1953-54 school year at Yale, where he will work toward the master of fine arts degree.

He will do the work on sabbatical leave, granted by the committee.

Robert B. Challener, who was head of the Transylvania College Department of Speech and Drama from 1948 through 1952, will be director of the theater for the coming year.

Graduate of Carnegie

Mr. Challener, a native of Youngstown, Ohio, is a graduate of Carnegie Institute of Technology Pittsburgh.

In addition to regular speech and dramatic duties at Transylvania, he served as director of the Summer Arena theater there for two summers and was largely responsible for that group's popular success in the Lexington area.

Resignations of two department heads also were received by the executive committee.

Pell Resigns Post

Prof. William H. Pell, head of the Department of Mathematics and Astronomy, has resigned to return to work in the mathematics department at Brown University, Providence, R. I. He had come to UK on a one-year leave of absence from Brown, after Dr. H. H. Downing stepped down as department head upon reaching retirement age.

Prof. M. C. Brown is acting head of the department.

Will Go To Denver

Prof. Leslie I. Poste, head of the Department of Library Science, has resigned, effective Sept. 1, to become director of the school of librarianship at the University of Denver this fall. He had been at UK since 1949. His successor has not been named.

Prof. Poste, who is still on campus, noted that he "hates to leave the Blue Grass," but added that he plans to "take up mountain climbing and fishing" in Denver.

Zoology Head Named

The committee named Dr. John M. Carpenter, currently a professor of zoology at the University of Tennessee, as professor and head of the Department of Zoology.

Dr. Carpenter will assume his duties in the department here Sept. 1, and Prof. J. M. Edney will continue to serve as acting head of the Department of Zoology during the summer session.

Dr. Carpenter holds the BA, MA and Ph.D degrees from the University of Texas. A native of New Brazil, Ind., he has been active in research work at Oak Ridge, Tenn., and with the Clayton Research Foundation.

String Group Gives Concert At 6 Tonight

A concert at 6 p.m., CST, tonight in the Amphitheater of Memorial Hall will close the week-long All-State High School Summer String Orchestra session.

Approximately 90 selected junior high and senior high school string players from the state have attended the week's activities. An elementary string orchestra of 50 players from Lexington and vicinity will also appear on the final program.

The premiere of a string orchestra transcription of one of the famous violin studies, the Etude No. 2 of Kreutzer, written by Kenneth Wright of the Music Department for the orchestra, will be a feature of the performance. This work will be done by the 30 first violins of the orchestra as a solo in unison, with the accompaniment by the remainder of the orchestra.

Miss Elizabeth Green of the University of Michigan, guest conductor, will lead the group.

The program is:

Organ Recital By Betsy Dodge Set For Monday

A graduate organ recital by Betsy Bishop Dodge, Paris, will be presented at 7 p.m., CST, Monday in Memorial Hall.

Miss Dodge received the Bachelor of Music degree in organ from UK in 1951 and this recital, under auspices of the Department of Music, is in partial fulfillment of requirements for the degree of Master of Music in organ.

She is a graduate of Ward-Belmont Junior College, Nashville, Tenn., where she received the Jane I. Morley award in music. She is a student of Arnold Blackburn.

Miss Dodge is a member of Phi Beta and of Chi Omega. She is organist of the First Methodist Church in Paris.

Her program will be:

College Business Managers Register For UK Institute

Representatives of 13 southern states and Ohio already have registered for UK's first annual College Business Management Institute, to be held Monday through Saturday.

The 50 registrants include business managers, assistants to college presidents, comptrollers, bursars, credit managers, auditors, treasurers, deans and a college president.

J. H. Dewberry of the University System of Georgia, first vice president of the Southern Association of College and University Business Officers, will deliver the keynote address Monday.

Bert Ahrens, Garden City, N. Y., executive secretary for the National Association of Educational Buyers, will be on campus Monday and Tuesday for informal individual and group conferences with those attending the institute.

Principal consultants for the school will be Frank D. Peterson, UK comptroller, and Dr. C. C. Carpenter, dean of the College of Commerce. Both also will serve as lecturers.

Other institute lecturers include four UK faculty and staff members and four non-University specialists in business or related fields.

The off-campus instructors are R. W. Kettler, Purdue University; Charles W. Hayes, Emory University; Granville K. Thompson, United States Office of Education, and Kelly Thompson, Western State College.

Mr. Hayes is a former UK employee, having served as supervisor of purchases here in 1943-44.

University instructors are Profs. Robert Dee Haun, Wendell E. Beals and Frank G. Coolsen, and Chief Engineer Elgan B. Farris.

'Clutterbuck' Set In Transy Arena

The Transylvania College arena production of "Clutterbuck" opens tonight at 7:30 o'clock, CST, in the Transy Arena.

Action of the play takes place on shipboard and on a resort island in the Caribbean Sea, when two wives in the party discover that they have been in love with the same man, Clutterbuck.

The Transylvania arena has been modified for this play, Director George Williams said, to allow for scenery on one side and spectators on the other three sides.

Reservations may be made by calling 2-3729 during the afternoon or evening.

Three Elaborate Settings Will Background 'Figaro'

By ABBOTT JONES

Three elaborate sets will background the Summer Opera presentation of "The Marriage of Figaro," August 5-8 in the Guignol Theater.

Nancy Niles, Louisville, a sophomore art student, is set designer for the Mozart opera.

Principals Named

Principals in the complicated action are Figaro, servant to Count Almaviva, played by Don Ivey; Susanna, maid to Countess Almaviva, played by Jo Ann Thomas; Doctor Bartolo, played by Conrad Richardson; Marcellina, housekeeper to Bartolo, Bettye Deen Stull; Cherubino, page to the countess, played by Carolyn Turner; Count Almaviva, played by James King; Don Basilio, the music-master, played by Robert Knauf; Countess Almaviva, played by Patricia Herren; Antonio, gardener and uncle of Susanna, played by Don Allan Clayton; and Don Curzio, lawyer, played by Bill Ralph.

In the story, Count Almaviva is tired of his wife and is making love to her maid Susanna, who is engaged to Figaro, the Count's valet. Almaviva is helped by Basilio, the music master, and Marcellina, who has lent money to Figaro on condition that if he cannot pay her, he must marry her.

Plot Develops

Susanna virtuously resists the temptations of the Count, although quite willing to make Figaro jealous. Figaro is discovered to be the son of Bartolo and Marcellina, and the opera ends with the discomfiture of the Count and his reconciliation with his wife.

The all-English translation performances are being directed jointly by Wallace N. Briggs, Guignol Theater director, and Almo Kiviniemi, director of the summer opera workshop.

Other Workers Listed

Ernest L. Rhodes, Guignol technical director, is performing that job for the opera. Mrs. Lolo Robinson, associate director of the theater, is costuming the performance.

This presentation, featuring a chorus of villagers, will be the fourth in the UK annual summer opera series. Other operas of the series have been "Der Fledermaus," "Song of Norway" and "Carmen."

The opera will be given at 7 o'clock, CST, each night. Tickets for all performances will go on sale at the Guignol box office on Thursday, July 30.

BSU's Plan Party

Baptist Student Union members will hold a watermelon party tonight, leaving the Student Center on South Limestone at 6 p.m., CST, for James Woodward's house, where the party will be held.

Band Still Leads In I-M Softball

The surprising Bandmen continue to lead the I-M softball field with a 4-0 record, followed by the BSU team with a 3-1 tally. The trailing Bums and Hobos have only one win between them.

In last Thursday's two tilts, the Band beat the Bums 12-8 by notching one run in the first, two in the second, and so on until the fifth, when they settled down with two. Hoskins pitched and Steiden was catcher.

Harry Carter got 4 hits in as many times at bat, and Hoskins helped his own cause with 3 hits. Bud Asch got a clean triple and a single.

Behind the no-hit pitching of Jack Yates, BSU smothered the Hobos 13-0. The big outburst was in the fourth when BSU batted around and scored 9 runs—4 of them coming on a grand slam homer by Yates. Johnny Foster, Bob Gresham and Jim Humphrey had two hits apiece.

Park Concerts Set Next Week

Two band concerts will be presented in Woodland Park next week by the Lexington Musicians Association Band. Performances are scheduled for 6:30 p.m., CST, Tuesday and Friday in the park bandstand.

The performances will be provided under a grant by the Music Performance Trust Funds under auspices of Lexington Local No. 54, American Federation of Musicians.

Union Farm Tour Will Be July 30

The second Student Union tour of Blue Grass farms will be held Thursday, July 30. Those going will meet at 12 noon, CST, at the Union, for the bus trip to Circle M Farm, King Ranch and Keeneland Race Course.

No charge will be made for the tour, but those interested should sign at the information desk in the Union by noon Wednesday. Social Director Brucie Cruise noted.

MEXICAN TRAVELOG — Emma Conder, left, Harrodsburg, and Polly Dickson, Madisonville, look at prints of two slides Dr. Joseph R. Schwendeman will show at Tuesday night's Campus Cinema. The program, which will begin at 7:45 o'clock, CST, in the amphitheater, will be made up of selected color movies and slides of Mexican scenic features and activities. The pictures are from the personal files of Dr. Schwendeman, head of the Department of Geography, who has been making visits to Mexico for the past 14 years. Both Polly and Emma are employed this summer by the Army Map Service, Polly as a compiler and Emma, who will be a junior in Home Ec this fall, as typist.

UK Pershing Rifles Unit Founder Dies

The founder of UK's Pershing Rifles unit died Tuesday in California.

George T. Knight, retired Army man who also served for many years as drillmaster of the group, passed away at his home in Palo Alto.

UK's platoon of PR, under his organization and direction, was beaten only a few times in special drill competition for units throughout the Fifth Corps area. Mr. Knight was an ROTC instructor here from 1920 to 1936.

He was awarded a commission while serving as an enlisted man during World War I and was subsequently made a warrant officer. He retired from Army service in 1939 and had since made his home in California.

Editorially Speaking

Speed That Last College!

Immediate action on the construction of a building on the UK campus to house the UK College of Pharmacy was called for Monday by the president of the Kentucky Pharmaceutical Association.

Albert R. Douglas, Bowling Green, speaking at an afternoon session of the 76th annual convention of the pharmaceutical association in Lexington, recommended the appointment of a committee to call on Gov. Lawrence Wetherby to ask him to include in his next budget funds to construct the building.

The College of Pharmacy is now located in Louisville and is the only one of UK's seven colleges without quarters on the Lexington campus. Present plans call for construction of the pharmacy building in about five years.

One of the more surprising elements of this summer term is the small, but faithful, group of male students who have gone in for cross-country running in a big way.

Believing that it's entirely too hot to practice during the day, three or four track devotees have taken to dashing around and across campus late at night, "just for the exercise."

It's good for working off tension after a hard day in school, they aver, besides being physically beneficial. One boy even swears by it as good preparation for a rough test.

They do seem to surprise some people, though, they admit. But that's understandable.

You really don't expect to see three boys in track suits dash over a hill and through the Botanical Gardens, or across Rose Street, along about midnight.

Business Meet Held

The sixth annual UK two-day Business Education Conference was held July 10 and 11.

Approximately 85 teachers of business subjects from Kentucky and several other states attended sessions of the conference.

Thompson Authors
Study Of Poet

Dr. Lawrence S. Thompson, UK director of libraries, is the author of a book entitled "Waiblinger in Italy," scheduled for publication in October by the University of North Carolina Press.

Announcement of the release of the new book has been made in the fall catalog of the North Carolina Press. The book is described in this pamphlet as "A Germanic Languages and Literature Study."

The volume is concerned with the life and works of Wilhelm Waiblinger, a Swabian poet, who represents many of the trends of romantic and post-romantic German literature. Dr. Thompson's book is a 100-page cloth-bound work.

Dr. Thompson has been serving as director of UK libraries since the fall of 1948.

COLONEL Of The Week

The Stirrup Cup proudly presents Pat Watlington, junior English major from Russellville, as Colonel of the Week.

Pat has an overall standing of 2.7—including two perfect 3's as a sophomore.

This is her first time in summer school. During the regular school year she was secretary of her sorority, Alpha Delta Pi; activities chairman on the Student Union Board; secretary of the League of Women Voters; and a member of Y Cabinet and Committee of 240. She has been in the concert band.

For these outstanding achievements, the Stirrup Cup invites Pat to enjoy any two of their many delicious meals.

Last Band Concert Set Wednesday

Rousing marches, arrangements of popular songs, a Bach chorale and a twirling exhibition will be features of the second and final presentation of the summer concert band, set for 6:30 p.m., CST, Wednesday in the Memorial Hall amphitheater.

Under the direction of Warren Lutz, the band will open with "The Star Spangled Banner." First number on the program proper will be Bach's chorale, "Jesus, Priceless Treasure." This will be followed by "Gentry's Triumphal March," by Jewell.

The program will continue with Offenbach's overture, "Orpheus in the Underworld." Reid Poole's arrangement of the popular "Poinciana" will follow.

The "Rosamunde Overture," by Schubert, will precede a twirling exhibition by Don and Donna Wilson, drum major and majorette of the regular-semester Marching 100. They will perform to "Sons of the Brave" and "Brooke's Chicago Marine Band."

Another Reid Poole arrangement, "Orchids in the Moonlight," is next on the agenda. Sousa's "Triumphal March," Foster's "My Old Kentucky Home" and Lampert's "On On U of K" will close the concert.

The concert will be open to the public and there will be no admission charge.

Johnson Heads KASCC Section

Bernard Johnson, assistant professor in the Department of Physical Education, has been appointed chairman of the Section on Health, Physical Education and Recreation for the fall meeting of the Kentucky Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Announcement of the appointment was made by Dr. Don Cash Seaton, head of the Department of Physical Education.

Prof. Johnson, who is director of Troupers and active in the Central Kentucky Officials Association, is currently completing study toward his doctor's degree at Ohio State University.

Zoo Opera, Playhouse Plan Closing Numbers

Six of the season's most popular operas will be repeated this week, the fifth and final week of opera at the Zoo in Cincinnati.

Tonight's "Aida," substituted for the less popular "Andrea Chenier," will star Stella Roman and Kurt Baum. "Faust" will be presented Saturday, and "Madame Butterfly" Sunday.

Brian Sullivan and Ethel Colt will have leading roles in Tuesday's "Carmen;" "The Merry Widow" is set for Wednesday, and Thursday's performance will be "Rigoletto."

Zoo Opera performances start at 8:15 p.m., Cincinnati time.

The Pioneer Playhouse will close its 1953 Danville-Cumberland Falls season next week with "Oliver
